Odenſee in the Iſland of Fuhnen, July 7. N. S.

THE King of Denmark having ſpent ſome time at Ringſted, to review the Regular Forces and Militia encamped there, (which thereupon were ſent back to their Quarters on the 3d Inſtant) his Majeſty proceeded to the Iſland of Laland, where he reviewed in the Plain of Mariboe the Battalions of Falſter and Laland, and came hither yeſterday about noon. After Dinner his Majeſty went out to the little Camp formed near this Place, conſiſting of the two Fuhnen Regiments of Horſe, which amount to 814 Men, and of 2626 Militia, whereof 442 are Dragoons, and the reſt Foot, and took a Review of them, and this day they were muſtered by the Commiſſary at War: In a Day or two the King will continue his Progreſs towards Holſtein.

Francfort, July 8. The Duke of Burgundy having made an end of demoliſhing our Lines between Croonweiſſembourg and Lauterbourg, the Army under his Command is marched to Hatten, in their way to Fort Louis. It is ſaid, that the beſt part of the Horſe is to be ſent to the Low-Countries, and that the Marſhal de Tallard, with the reſt of that Army, will continue near the Rhine, to obſerve the Confederate Forces under the Command of General Thungen, which are poſted along that River, between Philipsbourg and Stolhoffen. Some Advices add, that the Duke of Burgundy himſelf was gone from the French Army to Strasbourg, and would ſpeedily return to France. Our Advices from Swabia ſay, that on the 3d Inſtant Prince Lewis of Baden came with the Imperial Army under his Command in ſight of the French Army under the Marſhal de Villars, whereupon they immediatly fired 3 Cannon-ſhot, as a Signal for all their Parties which were abroad to retire to their Camp; however one of them of 100 Horſe fell in with our Troops, and were all killed or taken Priſoners; and the Marſhal de Villars coming out ſoon after with a ſtrong Party of Horſe to view our Army, one of our advanced Guards fired upon them, and 6 Perſons that were with him were killed, among whom is ſaid to be an Officer of Note, and the Marſhal himſelf narrowly eſcaped being taken Priſoner. Prince Lewis pitched his Camp within half a League of the Enemy, and expects the coming up of 6000 Foot who are marching to join him from the Margrave of Bareith's Army, which lay near Donawert, after which he will endeavour to force the Enemy's Camp. The French appear very apprehenſive of it, and the Marſhal de Villars has ſent 3 Expreſſes ſucceſſively to the Elector of Bavaria for Succours, who thereupon has ordered part of his Forces to march back from the Contry of Tirol with all poſſible Diligence to reinforce him, but it is to be hoped they will arrive too late. Some Letters ſay the Elector himſelf is come to Donawert.

Cologne, July 10. The three Regiments of Horſe, and ſix Battalions of Foot, of the King of Pruſſia's Forces, which were lately drawn from the Blockade of Gelder, in order to reinforce the Imperial Army on the Upper-Rhine, are all paſſed by this Place, in order to march thither; the Blockade being however ſtill continued by 3 Regiments of Foot. The Forces of the Circle of Weſtphalia, which are alſo ordered to the Upper-Rhine, conſiſting of 4 Battalions, 1 Regiment of Horſe, and another of Dragoons, paſſed over the Rhine at Coblentz the 7th Inſtant, and continued their March the next day.

Hamburgh, July 10. Letters from Lublin of the 30th paſt give an Account, That the Cardinal Primate took his Place the 27th in the General Diet aſſembled there; and then aſſured the King of Poland of his Fidelity, and endeavoured to clear himſelf of the Aſperſions which he hath lain under, of being in the Swediſh Intereſt, whereupon he was admitted to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand, and afterwards took a new Oath of Fidelity to him, and to the Republick; A great many Members of the Diet ſeemed in their Speeches enclined to declare War in the Name of the Republick againſt the King of Sweden, which made it believed that Aſſembly would be adjourned for a fortnight, and in the mean time a Deputation would be ſent that King, to have his final Anſwer in relation to the Advances made for ſetting on foot a Negociation of Peace between the two Crowns. The Swediſh Army continued near Thoorn, and a Body of about 18000 Men of the Forces of the Crown and of Lithuania, and ſome Saxon Troops, were marching that way in order to obſerve them.

From the Camp at Vorſelaer, July 12. The Duke of Marlborough returned hither the 10th Inſtant from the great Council of War which was lately held at Bergen-op-zoom; His Grace was entertained there by the Deputies of the States General, as he had been at Breda by the Governor of that Place. The Hereditary Prince of Heſſe, Monſieur Dopff, the Count de Noyelles General of the Foot, Monſieur Scholten, and Monſieur Buleau, Lieutenants-General, who accompanied his Grace, and were alſo preſent at the Council of War abovementioned, are likewiſe returned hither. A ſtrong Party of Horſe being ſent out the 10th, under the Command of Major-General Rantzau, to obſerve the Enemy, who were Foraging, met with part of their Forage-Guard, whereof our Men took two Captains, and 18 Troopers, with their Horſes, and the Priſoners were ſent this morning to Breda. The Enemy marched out of their Lines the 7th to Sandthoven, being the ſame day that we came to this Ground; they have ſince made a ſmall Motion to St. Jop, where they are now encamped.

Amſterdam, July 13. Letters from Paris of the firſt Inſtant, which came by the way of Lorrain, bring an Account, That the French Court had received with great Mortification the News of the Duke of Vendoſme's Miſcarriage before Oſtiglia, and Monſieur Albergoti's Defeat near Mirandola; And that according to the Advices from their Army in Italy of the 22d paſt, nothing conſiderable had ſince happened, except an Action between the Body of Imperialiſts commanded by General Vaubonne, and another of the French Forces, wherein the latter were worſted. The French King has given the Regiment commanded by Monſieur d'Eſpinal, who was killed in the Action near Mirandola, to the Son of the Duke de'Elbeuff, who ſerves in that Army as Aid de Camp to the Duke of Vendoſme. The French Court was then at Marly, and would continue there till the 14th Inſtant.

Hague, July 13. The Four Deputies of the States-General, who were preſent in the Council of War lately held at Bergenopzoom, came hither yeſterday in the evening, to make their Report of what had been there reſolved to the States-General, who thereupon immediately met, and continued in Conſultation until midnight; After their Riſing an Expreſs was diſpatched to the Army, and the ſame Deputies are to follow thither this day or to morrow. The Enemy ſeem to apprehend that our Troops will attempt to force their Lines, and are accordingly providing againſt it, having ſummoned the Country People within the Marquiſate of Antwerp to repair to their Army, deſigning to employ them in making ſeveral new Works, for their better defence. Monſieur d'Opdam arrived here yeſterday from Bergenopzoom. The States General have ſent a Deputation to Lieutenant General Fagell, who is at preſent here, with a Compliment, expreſſing their Satisfaction, in his Conduct in the late Action at Eckeren. The Standards, Colours, and Kettle-Drums, taken from the French in this Occaſion, were carried two days ago in Triumph to the Court, to be ſet up in the Great-Hall as Monuments of the Signal Victory, which our Forces gained in ſo unequal a Battel. The Letters which we received this day from Flanders ſay, That Baron Spaar has taken the Fort of Kilarecht, between Hulſt and Lieſkenshoek, wherein was a Gariſon of 160 Men. Our Advices from Germany ſay, That the Duke of Burgundy was upon his Return to the French Court, and had made a Detachment of 6000 Horſe from his Army to reinforce the French Army near Antwerp. Prince Lewis of Baden being advanced with he Army under his Command within ſight of the French Forces Commanded by the Marſhal de
